

MARISOL Mother

Says

Uncertainty

I am used to making things up as I go, but this is different.

It's unclear when these processes are completed or if I am rejected

I repeatedly mentioned my concerns to the pediatrician- and nothing happened.

Urgency

I don't know what I need to do and when I need to do it.

It's not clear when these processes are completed orl am rejected

Process

Medicaid just keeps asking me for more information.

I don't know where to start, much less where I am in the process.

What happens if my application is rejected—what do I do next?
